

17 January 2019

Alison Quinn to step down as RetireAustralia CEO

Infratil advises that Alison Quinn has resigned as the CEO of RetireAustralia, with effect from 31 March 2019. Alison was appointed as CEO of RetireAustralia in early 2016.

During Alison's time as CEO, RetireAustralia has placed current and future residents at the centre of its thinking, growing its development pipeline with projects that will lead the retirement sector in Australia for ageing-in-place and is progressing well in making care integral to its offering.

RetireAustralia has commenced a search for a new CEO, and has appointed Anthony Heald, General Manager – People, Culture and Technology, as interim CEO until a new CEO is appointed. Alison will remain with the RetireAustralia business to support Anthony during the transition period until her departure on 31 March 2019.

RetireAustralia is owned by Infratil (50%) and the New Zealand Superannuation Fund (50%). The investment is managed on behalf of Infratil and the New Zealand Superannuation Fund by investment management firm Morrison & Co.

Any enquiries should be directed to:

Mark Flesher, Investor Relations, Infratil Limited
mark.flesher@infratil.com